

1. Unit Announcements:

The Lord Strathcona's Horse (Royal Canadians) Cadet Corps in Calgary has a storied history spanning several decades. Established on 22 March 1926, the corps has been an integral part of the community for over four decades. With its roots deeply embedded in the Canadian military tradition, the cadet corps has played a crucial role in shaping the lives of countless young individuals.

Initially formed to provide youth with valuable leadership skills, discipline, and camaraderie, the Lord Strathcona Cadet Corps has consistently upheld these ideals. The corps has helped young Canadians develop character, self-confidence, and a strong sense of responsibility through its various programs and activities.

As a part of the larger Lord Strathcona's Horse (Royal Canadians) regiment, the cadet corps reflects the military values and heritage of the regiment itself. Established on 01 December 1900, the regiment has a distinguished service history nationally and internationally, having participated in numerous conflicts and peacekeeping missions.

The cadet corps in Calgary is a direct link to this legacy, allowing young people to engage with military history while focusing on personal growth and skill development. Through training, drills, teamwork, and community involvement, the cadets deeply understand the regiment's history and its contributions to Canada's military heritage.

Over the years, the Lord Strathcona's Horse (Royal Canadians) Cadet Corps in Calgary has evolved to meet the changing needs and interests of the youth it serves. While maintaining its commitment to the military ethos, the corps has also embraced modern educational methodologies to provide a well-rounded experience for its cadets.

As the cadet corps celebrates its more than 97-year history, it continues to inspire and guide youths toward becoming responsible citizens and future leaders. With its rich legacy and dedication to fostering personal growth, the Lord Strathcona's Horse (Royal Canadians) Cadet Corps in Calgary remains an enduring institution in the community.
